It being a recognized fact that recruits in the temperance work must come from the Christians in the churches, a new movement was inaugurated on last Wednesday evening at the First Presbyterlan church, Tenth and Forest, with the hearty co-operation of the pastor and officers of the church. The meeting was taken in charge by the Central Women's Christian Temperance Union and the evening devoted to a review of the work.

Mrs. S. J. Hubbell, in a few words, stated the object of the meeting and displayed a book, bound in wood, from the oid crusade church in Hillsboro, O., and containing pictures of the pastor and leaders of that wonderful movement, out of which has grown the worldwide Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Bomgardner, an original crusader, acting president of the Central Union since the death of Mrs. Ira Lewis, led in devotional service. Mrs. Jere Black, herself one of the number, told how the little band of praying women went out of that church twenty-two years ago, led by a spirit which they could not resist, carried out of their natural timidity by the overwhelming need of a temperance reformation. Items were read showing how missionary effort in foreign lands is hampered by the rum traffle.

Miss Ellen Morris, the state secretary, gave an account of the work accomplished by the union during the month of January, and Mrs. Lida Isgrigg, state superintendant of flower mission department, told of religious services held during the month in hospitals, jails and at the poor farm. By request, she spoke of the library of over Low volumes established by the union at the latter place, and of the talented blind boy being educated through her efforts at the asylum in St. Louis. Mrs. Willis read a paper entitled, "Why I Am a Whits Ribboner."

The meeting was well attended, and a number of new members secured.

It would be difficult to find a more delighted audience than that which listened to the programme of the East side Literary Society last Friday evening. The musicians vied with some of the brightest women in the city in making the programme a perfect success. Professor Behr provided a surprise in the person of Mr. Ralph Dunbar, of St. Joseph, the 'cellist of the Symphony orchestra. Mr. Dunbar's number was Schumann's "Traumerel" which was enthusiastically received. Mr. Ben T. Hollenback sang an old song, "Answer," but sang it with power and sweetness. Mrs. Hollenback's number was finely rendered, and was followed by Miss Beymer, with a Lisat rhapsodie, played in her best manner.

The programme for next Friday night will be as follows: "American Students and Artists Abroad," Mr. E. A. Huppert: "Art Among the American People," Miss Laura Laing; an article from Mrs. Mary H. Ford, Chicago, which will be read by a member of the society, Literary Review, Mr. Frank H. Dexter; reading, Mrs. Joel D. Franklin; "Know About Him." Miss Berenice Scarritt, Mrs. W. J. Anderson, Mr. J. H. Bremermann. The music will be furnished by Mrs. Ella Backus-Behr. The programmes will be souvenir programmes, the cover being designed by Mr. E. A. Huppert.

Peculiar Piano Politics.

The trials and tribulations of the seeker after truth, as applied to the Piano question, are numerous and exasperating; and many there be who fail to find the combination. For instance, the dealer who has been pounding the alleged merits of a particular Piano into the public mind for years, claiming that it is the best Piano that ever could, would or should be made on earth-suddenly abandons this paragon of Piano perfection and adopts in its place another-formerly not to be compared with its predecessor, but now in its turn the best Piano that ever could, etc., etc.-amusing to the disinterested spectator, distracting to the intending purchaser-where shall he turn for relief?

For forty-five years the old reliable BRADBURY has stood in the front rank of the BEST PIANOS made; we manufacture it; we sell it on its merita direct to the retail buyer-direct to the home. We know and can thoroughly warrant its every detail. Our name is stamped upon every one; no divided responsibility; we have spent a lifetime perfecting this magnificent instrument; yesterday, to-day and forever occupying the place of honor in our twelve immense warerooms throughout the land. We sell it to you direct, without the intervention of a middleman, thus saving you the dealer's profit, and on payment of $10.00 per month. Think it over.
